

Former Associate Pastors of Our Church
Rev. Jennifer Marie McDevitt
(Served 2011 to 2012)

Rev. McDevitt answered the call to be Associate Pastor at Bayside on October 1, 2011.

Jenny was born October 1, 1979 in Livonia, Michigan, and grew up in the Catholic church. She is a graduate of Kenyon College, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and Creative Writing. She began attending a Presbyterian church in college and spent college summers working at Makemie Woods. She earned a Master of Divinity degree from Union Presbyterian Seminary in 2009.

Before coming to Bayside, Jenny served two years as Minister in Residence at First Presbyterian Church of Ann Arbor. As a Seminary intern, she served the First Presbyterian Church in Richmond and volunteered with the Chaplain's Office at Children's Hospital of the King's Daughters in Norfolk.

At Bayside, Jenny was regarded as a compassionate soul with a gentle spirit. She was naturally drawn to Congregational Care and Community Service and she loved the way Bayside cared for one another and for the community. She loved animals too, and often brought her dog, Reilly to the office to sit by her side. Jenny was especially gifted in her prayers – spoken from the heart reflecting her deep, abiding faith in God; and always just what the congregation needed to hear.

Jenny left August 26, 2012 to answer a call to Village Presbyterian Church in Prairie Village, Kansas.
