Dr. Richard Jenkins Keever

Richard J. Keever comes to us from Richmond, Virginia where since 1976 he has served on the administrative staff of Union Theological Seminary. Dick has been Director of Seminary Relations, Executive Secretary of the UTS Alumni/ae, and Director of the Friends of the Seminary.

Born in Lincolnton, North Carolina January 18, 1941, Dick was educated at the following schools:

University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, N.C.	Bachelor of Arts 1963
Union Theological Seminary Richmond, Va.	Bachelor of Divinity 1967
Yale University New Haven, Conn.	Master of Sacred Theology 1968
Union Theological Seminary Richmond, Va.	Doctor of Ministry 1980

Ordained in the Presbyterian Church, U.S. on September 29, 1968, Dick served for eight years as pastor of Covenant Presbyterian Church, in Lynchburg, Virginia. Active in the leadership of Synod and Presbytery, he was elected moderator of his Presbytery in 1975. Earlier work in the ministry included service as an aide at the Dorothea Dix State Mental Hospital in Raleigh, N.C. (summer-1963), as a chaplain at the Medical College of Virginia in Richmond, Va. (summer-1965) and as an assistant to the minister, St. Andrew Presbyterian Church in Beaumont, Texas during the year 1965-1966.

Most recently he has served as interim pastor of the Overbrook Presbyterian Church in Richmond, Va. In addition to his responsibilities at Union Seminary, Dick preached, taught, offered pastoral care, and directed the staff at Overbrook until the new pastor was installed.

The Kever Family

Dick is married to Evelyn (Evie) Gravesen, formerly of Chicago, Illinois. They have two sons; Daniel (10 years) and Andrew (8 years). They love and enjoy people, ice cream, yard work and soccer.
