BAYSIDE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

presents

William Joseph Kiser-Lowrance

William J. (Will) Kiser-Lowrance comes to us from the Maple Wood Presbyterian Parish in Cornell, Wisconsin.

Will married Rebecca Lynn Kiser on May 16, 1980. Becky is an ordained Presbyterian minister who has served as Co-pastor, with Will, of the five-church Maple Wood Parish for the last four and a half years.

Will was born on December 14, 1953 in Mooresville, N.C. and educated at:

University of North Carolina
Charlotte, North Carolina
Bachelor of Arts, 1977, in Religious Studies (with Honors)

Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary
Louisville, Kentucky
Master of Divinity, 1981

Becky is a graduate of Louisville Seminary also.

Will selected Louisville Seminary because he was challenged by their requirement for two years of Field Education which he performed as Pastoral Counselor at Atherton Public High School in Louisville; as Student Supply Pastor at English Presbyterian Church in English, Indiana; as Chaplain to the Renal Unit and Emergency Room at Louisville General Hospital; and as Chaplain to 14 to 17 year olds at Central State Mental Hospital in LaGrange, Kentucky. During his last year as a student at Louisville, Will served as Assistant Editor of the Seminary's publication, "Life of Louisville".

Will was ordained in September 1982 by Louisville Presbytery after serving the first of two years as Interim Director of Field Education at Louisville Seminary.

Will is an experienced counselor who has completed two basic units of Clinical Pastoral Education.

Will and Becky share interests in their loving care of God's people and in their enjoyment of picnicking, camping, walking, and hiking. Will's other hobbies include writing, photography, basic guitar, and golf (one lesson). In the immediate future, Becky plans to serve as homemaker and mother to their two children, Grady (three years) and Casey Lynn (one year).
